Subject: Re: Special call

Happy to discuss but waters approach and the BLM movement is missing the forest through the trees. Those screw ups, albeit awful, are a drop in the bucket to black on black violent crime which is highly disproportionate. As long as black on black violent crime is so disproportionately high, the screw ups will continue because the intensity and stakes for police are so high. This movement just emboldens the bad guys and chills police. That said, training is necessary, aggressive stop and frisk is wrong, driving or walking while black so to speak is terrible. When police are outrageous, punish them. When it is a good faith judgment call, protect them. I appreciate we need to be balanced but your reference in plan to Obama plan address that too.
